

NEW INDIAN MODEL SCHOOL, AL AIN

UNIFORM POLICY -2023-24

New Indian Model School, Al Ain's Uniform Policy oversees a decent dress code for the students.

It also confirms that both the parents and the students are well aware of the need of a decent dress code for the moulding of a civilized and well organized society. It highlights the following aspects:

1. The students should dress themselves up respecting the ethical values of Islam and the U.A.E culture
2. The students must wear the school uniform regularly
3. The students should not follow any distasteful dressing
4. Alterations to school uniform, according to the taste of each student, will never be permitted.
5. P.E Dress, suggested by the school, must be worn by each student on the days of Physical Education.
6. It is compulsory that the students should wear neat and hygienic uniform daily.
7. The students should wear school uniform on the days of school events and programmes.
8. The students must be well aware of the fact that the school uniform proclaims the school's quality to the outside world.
9. The students can put on casual wear on special occasions like, children's day, UAE National day etc. as advised by the school authorities.
10. Crazy hair styles will not be permitted in the campus
