Dear Parent

EID HOLIDAYS

Please be informed that the school will observe 'Eid- Ul-Fitr' holidays from 24th Sunday to 26th Tuesday May, 2020. The online classes as per the regular timing will resume after the Eid holidays on 27th Wednesday May, 2020. In case Eid (Shawwal 1st) falls on Saturday 23rd May, the reopening of school will be on 26th May 2020.

E- LEARNING PROGRESS

It is a pleasure to inform you that we have regular attendance of students on an average 92 % and let me extend my appreciation to your cooperation in this regard. Also, we are thankful to your suggestions and recommendations with regard to the modality of distance learning. All the constructive recommendations have already been met with and progress in the learning journey of students have been ensured. Taking care of the wellness of students, we have made it imperative to give only the manageable and age appropriate extended assignments.

PAYMENT REMINDER

Delay in school fee payment and increasing volume of arrears is really a worrying situation for the school. We understand that it is a tiring time, however the academic staff who relentlessly putting efforts to bring smile on the face of parents and students cannot be affected by any crisis, for which we request your cooperation of clearing the dues including May at the earliest. This is essential to avoid any disconnection of services from the school. You may kindly ignore this reminder, you have already cleared the dues of your ward.

May the Almighty Bless all of us with good health.

EID MUBARAK

With regards

Principal
